When I was a kid I was really into horror films. I watched every single horror film that came out in the 80s.

~David Hayter

When a horror movie is well done, I love it and I put it up in esteem with any other genre.

~David Hayter

Number one rule in Hollywood is to maintain relationships with successful people, and you may find yourself involved in some very cool projects.

~David Hayter

It's important to continue to change and evolve in the way that the comics change and evolve.

~David Hayter

All sizes of film sets have the same level of excitement and friction and tension and then vast sections of boredom that define the process, so I love it all.

~David Hayter

To turn a human being into a part-canine or lupine creature takes a good deal of artistry and money.

~David Hayter

I think American Werewolf in London is the greatest werewolf movie of all time.

~David Hayter

You can argue that the Terminator movies reboot their world each time they go back in time, but that doesn't negate the value of Terminator 1 and 2. So I don't really feel that way.

~David Hayter

Comic books, if you're adapting a comic book - like X-Men, for example - you've got 40 years of amazing stories to dig into, things that incredible artists have been thinking about for decades.

~David Hayter

On the lower budget pictures, you go overtime more, you're sort of scrambling for the shots and cobbling together more ideas at the end.

~David Hayter

When you're playing a tough guy, all the other guys want to be tough right back at you and it amps them up.
