Greens are not expected to be anything but nice.

~David Lange

After that, whenever I drove past Mangakahia, I would empty my ashtray - and I was a heavy smoker in those days - on the road outside the hall.

~David Lange

Will the United States pull the rug on New Zealand? The answer is no. They might polish the lino a bit harder and hope that I execute a rather unseemly glide across it.

~David Lange

An itinerant masseur, massaging the politically erogenous zones.

~David Lange

Today's Schools are not Tomorrows Schools. That's a fundamental misconception.

~David Lange

Bassett was a member of parliament and a cousin on my father's side of the family. My father delivered him and it became plain in later days that he must have dropped him.

~David Lange

My back is so scar-tissued that you couldn't find a place to slip a knife.

~David Lange

They couldn't, in the National Party, run a bath and if either the deputy leader or the leader tried to, Sir Robert would run away with the plug.

~David Lange

Death is very, very terminal.

~David Lange

I think more than anything, that's when I decided politics was on.
