Never ask for approval in your work. Life is your own, inspiration is your own, you create alone, and the results are your own - and that's good enough.

~David Luiz

An ego should be like a warm breeze, never seen, just mildly sensed.

~David Luiz

Everything in life belongs to God. Our purpose has already been mapped out.

~David Luiz

If you are happy, you are a geezer.

~David Luiz

If you have used colour throughout most of your artistic life, try just black and white... it will take your painting to another dimension where tone and form in all its permutations reign supreme.

~David Luiz

History reveals that left-brain people have been creating art for a long time now.

~David Luiz

The mark of genius is consistency. Do we hear of naive genius piano players? If anyone knows of one, try listening to it for an hour.

~David Luiz

The process of painting offers an infinite array of possibilities. The closer in unification to just one of those, the better the painting becomes.

~David Luiz

I just wanted to see my people smile. Brazillian people suffer so much. I just wanted them to smile

~David Luiz

Sometimes it is best to burn paintings that just don't burn.

~David Luiz

The foundation is in place, and now we have to get to work.

~David Luiz

Twenty years ago the computer was a babbling box. Now it is a boasting beast.

~David Luiz

By creating instinctively in auto mode we can uncover our true motives, our creative drive.

~David Luiz

It seems strange that some artists fear a blank canvas, when it has been a major contributory factor to great paintings.

~David Luiz

Painting is a means of saying something about one's self in a beautiful or powerful way that people would like to see, but not hear.

~David Luiz

If the US is the country that most contributes with greenhouse gases, in the world, it should assume more responsibility to reduce emissions
