As a singer, I just want to try to honor what the writers create - and as someone who's trying to write songs, I just hope I can stand in their company and not embarrass myself.

~David Nail

I've never really gotten into the whole labels thing. There were times I would cover a pop song, and people would say 'You sound really country.' I gave up on that whole thing a long time ago.

~David Nail

I think every singer hears songs that make you want to sing them.

~David Nail

I have learned from Twitter that you get that instant feedback about what people think about what you did.

I think anytime you get nominated for an award, its a very humbling thing.

~David Nail

I'm a worrywart, so I'm always a bit more stressed out than I should be or wish I was.

~David Nail

Any time I get to go home is a joyous occasion.

~David Nail

Over the course of a day, you get to get a feel for where you're playing, so when you get out on stage, you already feel like you've had a bit of a bonding experience with them.
