I believe we must seek God's will, never presuming to identify it with our own program or power.

~David Price

Congress needs strong parties, but it also needs the capacity to deal with budget and entitlement challenges that are likely beyond the reach of pure partisan exertion.

~David Price

I have also come to understand Congress' need for a bipartisan as well as a partisan capacity.

~David Price

The impending teacher shortage is the most critical education issue we will face in the next decade.

~David Price

What drew me to both study and activism was the formative experience of the civil rights movement.

~David Price

I'm a very competitive person, whether it's school, baseball or even playing video games.

~David Price

I am struck by the fact that personal faith and political agendas are intertwined more closely now than at any other time in recent history.

~David Price

Unified party control of the organs of government has proved no panacea.

~David Price

I believe in a fight between me & Wilder... I can come out on top

~David Price

Personal faith can be a powerful force for public good.

~David Price

Goodness knows the Republican electorate is a pretty narrow slice of the population.
