Sometimes when you get disappointment it makes you stronger.

~David Rudisha

I realized I could run after finding out that my dad used to run and it gave me the morale that if he did it then maybe I could also run.

~David Rudisha

It's something special to break the world record at the Olympics.

~David Rudisha

I love my tribe, the Maasai are very good people and humble.

~David Rudisha

When I was a little boy, I always wanted to run. I loved competing with my friends.

~David Rudisha

Even if the pace is slow in championships, you can still sprint well and still power in the last 200, which is always the main part when the race is slow.

~David Rudisha

Fantastic, I am very happy to be the fastest 800 metres runner in the world.

~David Rudisha

My focus in 2010 was on just running fast races. My focus in 2011 was for winning at the World Championships. This year has been a combination of the two so we'll see what kind of time it brings.

~David Rudisha

The weather plays a very big role. I have run very few races in the raining and the cold.

~David Rudisha

My family means everything to me and the birth of our daughter has enabled me to have more focus on my career and every time I compete, I dedicate my success to them.
