My father was my main influence. He was a preacher, but he was also a history and political science teacher, and since he was my hero, I wanted to follow in his footsteps and become a teacher.

~David Soul

It's only when gravity starts to take over you begin to think about your body.

~David Soul

I like to eat and I love the diversity of foods.

~David Soul

Yes, your home is your castle, but it is also your identity and your possibility to be open to others.

~David Soul

Once in a while I'll get moved to do some exercise. It's something I long for but the biggest problem is bending down and putting my tennis shoes on. Once I go out I'm OK.

~David Soul

People thought me a bit strange at first; a blond haired, blue-eyed Norwegian who sang Mexican folk songs, but I used it to my advantage and got a job. And so the music became my ticket to education.

~David Soul

Being on the move all the time is draining, but the rewards make up for it.

~David Soul

I believe that a parents role is to provide a path or opportunity for their children.

~David Soul

Paul and I were both struggling actors. One night he would serve me in a restaurant, and the next night I would serve him. It was what out of work actors did.

~David Soul

A job is a very healthy thing to do.

~David Soul

I was an accidental actor. I was never formally trained.
