The United States is a rogue state violating international law in many, many ways that California wouldn't have to if it seceded and became a nation.

~David Swanson

Activism has always been the driving force for change.

~David Swanson

I think almost everything important that's ever happened was unimaginable shortly before it happened. Good things and bad things: ending slavery, ending child labor, women voting, etc.

~David Swanson

The Pentagon is supposed to be under civilian control and it ought to be up to the people of the United States, not the profiteers.

~David Swanson

No other nation killed people the way the United States did to end slavery.

~David Swanson

California as a nation or part of a larger West Coast nation, should other states join with California, would be a good influence on the rest of the United States.

~David Swanson

The United States has been becoming worse year after year after year for decades, and it's guaranteed to continue down that path if we don't change something.

~David Swanson

Many militarists would like to see California's votes vanish from the national electoral system, which would then become more Republican.

~David Swanson

Climate change is so unimaginable that most Americans deny it's happening.

~David Swanson

I think the election of Donald Trump, if you want to call it an election, was unimaginable to most people, which is part of how it happened.

~David Swanson

Imagine Jon Stewart if he gave a damn. He's like Howard Zinn after 12 beers.
