Leadership is building a bridge that connects the vision with the purpose, in order to empower those who are around us.

~David Walker

Church should be a place where love is evident, God delivers, lives are changed, hearts are healed, and families restored.

~David Walker

Lord, please give me big ears and a thoughtful mind. Teach me to ask well and see it through other's eyes.

~David Walker

I may be doomed to the stake and the fire, or to the scaffold tree, but it is not in me to falter if I can promote the work of emancipation.

~David Walker

To me, the real marks of beauty in a woman are courage, character, kindness, and personality.

~David Walker

Well, it was just, the bars was all just like the bamboo roofs and everything. You know. As I say, to me, it's completely spoiled all, all these places now. Make them all just tourist traps.

~David Walker

I know that the blacks, take them half enlightened and ignorant, are more humane and merciful than the most enlightened and refined European that can be found in all the earth.

~David Walker

Allowing God to charge our lives that we may empower people around us to live in a greater relationship with him.

~David Walker

Karate is for life, not points.

~David Walker

Our government has made a whole lot of promises that, in the long run, it cannot possibly keep without huge tax increases.

~David Walker

Just five years ago, it was almost impossible to waste a million dollars building a Web site.

~David Walker

Usually the way to screw up some good fishing is to have a tournament. This just keeps getting better and better.
