I'll never forget anything about Middle Earth. That's part of my memory now so I won't miss anything.

~David Wenham

I'm becoming a frustrated director, I think, in an actor's body.

~David Wenham

Some people would say I've made it now.

~David Wenham

My life at the moment is a bit like my wardrobe. Organised chaos.

~David Wenham

I'd love to work with the people who really got the film industry going again through the 70s: Peter Weir, Bruce Beresford, Gillian Armstrong, Fred Schepisi.

~David Wenham

In very general terms 'Top Of The Lake' is about good and evil. It's a deep dark mystery. It also deals with lots of fascinating human relationships, and it's also about the battle of the sexes.

~David Wenham

I think actors do make really, really wonderful directors.

~David Wenham

I do regard myself as very lucky.

~David Wenham

I would love to direct a feature and have Robert Connolly produce it. That would be really fab.

~David Wenham

I've ended up spending more time in front of a camera than on stage, but the stage is where I come from.

~David Wenham

Acting, to me, is being given the freedom and ability to play, and that's - that's what I love most about it. I feel very comfortable in playing, whether it be in front of a camera or on stage.

~David Wenham

Australia is a phenomenally beautiful country, and every time I go away and come back, it never ceases to amaze me.

~David Wenham

Well you just have to own it, I suppose. Own the character, which is difficult.

~David Wenham

I have a sort of long-term plan to direct. I'm pragmatic about it. I realize I don't need to rush it or force it.
