The party in power, like Jonah's gourd, grew up quickly, and will quickly fall.

~Davy Crockett

There ain't no ticks like poly-ticks. Bloodsuckers all.

~Davy Crockett

We have the right as individuals, to give away as much of our own money as we please in charity; but as members of Congress we have no right to appropriate a dollar of the public money.

~Davy Crockett

Be sure you are right, then go ahead.

~Davy Crockett

You can all go to hell. I'm going to Texas.

~Davy Crockett

My tongue speak what my heart thinks.

~Davy Crockett

Remember these words when I am dead. First be sure you're right, then go ahead.

~Davy Crockett

It was expected of me that I was to bow to the name of Andrew Jackson... even at the expense of my conscience and judgement. such a thing was new to me, and a total stranger to my principles.

~Davy Crockett

I am at liberty to vote as my conscience and judgment dictates to be right, without the yoke of any party on me... Look at my arms, you will find no party hand-cuff on them.

~Davy Crockett

I have always supported measures and principles and not men.

~Davy Crockett

I would rather be politically dead than hypocritically immortalized.

~Davy Crockett

If I could rest anywhere, it would be in Arkansas, where the men are of the real half-horse, half-alligator breed such as grows nowhere else on the face of the universal earth.

~Davy Crockett

Fame is like a shaved pig with a greased tail, and it is only after it has slipped through the hands of some thousands, that some fellow, by mere chance, holds on to it!

~Davy Crockett

Congress allows lemonade to the members and has it charged under the head of stationery-I move also that whiskey be allowed under the item of fuel.

~Davy Crockett

Although our great man at the head of the nation, has changed his course, I will not change mine.

~Davy Crockett

I would rather be beaten, and be a man, than to be elected and be a little puppy dog.

~Davy Crockett

Most of authors seek fame, but I seek for justice - a holier impulse than ever entered into the ambitious struggles of the votaries of that fickle, flirting goddess.

~Davy Crockett

I have suffered my self to be politically sacrificed to save my country from ruin and disgrace and if I am never a gain elected I will have the gratification to know that I have done my duty.

~Davy Crockett

The enemy fought with savage fury, and met death with all its horrors, without shrinking or complaining: not one asked to be spared, but fought as long as they could stand or sit.

~Davy Crockett

We must not permit our respect for the dead or our sympathy for the living to lead us into an act of injustice to the balance of the living.

~Davy Crockett

Look at my arms, you will find no party hand-cuff on them.

~Davy Crockett

You can all go to heck; I will go to Texas

~Davy Crockett

Make sure you're right, then go ahead.

~Davy Crockett

Heaven knows that I have done all that a mortal could do, to save the people, and the failure was not my fault, but the fault of others.

~Davy Crockett

If one man in the country could take all the money, what was the use of passing any bills about it?

~Davy Crockett

Throughout the day no time for memorandums now. Go ahead! Liberty and independence forever.

~Davy Crockett

A bulger of a place it is. The number of the ships beat me all hollow, and looked for all the world like a big clearing in the West, with the dead trees all standing.

~Davy Crockett

You can go to hell -- I'm going to Texas.

~Davy Crockett

Farewell to ye all! In the land of the stranger I rise or I fall.

~Davy Crockett

There is no chance of hurrying bussiness here like in the legeslature of a State thare is such a desposition here to Show Eloquence that this will be a long Session and do no good.
