My family is a part of my life and everything is all a mixture of enjoyment.

~Davy Jones

I'm about to challenge for the Maryland Cup in the next couple of years, as an owner, a trainer, and a rider.

~Davy Jones

I got hate letters from girls all over America because I wouldn't go to the prom with them.

~Davy Jones

The racing bug is never going to go away. It's like the Mafia.

~Davy Jones

Once you're in, you're in. It's like the Mafia. Once a Monkee, always a Monkee.

~Davy Jones

I like tall girls because I like someone to look up to.

~Davy Jones

The Monkees are like the mafia. You're in for life. Nobody gets out.

~Davy Jones

Do you fear death? Do you fear that dark abyss? All your deeds laid bare. All your sins punished. I can offer you...an escape.

~Davy Jones

I would say that fifty percent of my show is killer comedy.

~Davy Jones

I only bet on what's dearest to a man's heart. Else there is no way to tell if he's bluffing. What a man is willing to risk or not to risk, that's a measure of his soul.

~Davy Jones

My first ever stage performance was in Edinburgh in 1960.

~Davy Jones

We wanted to interview people on the show, do variety, get the artists, the guests involved with us in our group. They wanted to keep the four guys together. We wanted to change the format.

~Davy Jones

I never slept alone until I was married.

~Davy Jones

Before I was an actor I was an apprentice jockey, and now I'm out there racing against boys, sort of the spokesperson for people over 50 that they can do it.

~Davy Jones

You can put me in the basement or the penthouse, it doesn't matter to me.

~Davy Jones

The Beatles set the rules. And the rules were: now just because we have long hair doesn't mean that we're rebellious.

~Davy Jones

It used to be 65 when you went into retirement. Before that, when you got into your 50s, you were getting older.

~Davy Jones

I wanted to be a jockey.

~Davy Jones

It's not about what you have, it's what people think you have.

~Davy Jones

Justin Bieber stole my haircut. And Axl Rose stole my dance!

~Davy Jones

Did you forget? I'm a heartless wretch!

~Davy Jones

People always expect you to be jumping out of a Rolls Royce and being in the papers for drunk and disorderly or sleeping around.

~Davy Jones

The Dutchman sails as its captain commands!

~Davy Jones

I'm a married man. If I want sex at this particular point in my life, I go home for it.

~Davy Jones

America changed my life, but I still think of home and working in Scotland was an important part of that.

~Davy Jones

I've got a farm in England where I breed horses.

~Davy Jones

Are you prepared for what's next?

~Davy Jones

Around the property I have here, I'm about to put an all weather race track. I'm about to build stables. I'm about to ship over a couple of my thoroughbreds from England.

~Davy Jones

During the summer, Screen Gems launched the New Monkees, which miserably failed I understand. I never saw it.

~Davy Jones

I was mad at Screen Gems, but I'm not mad at them anymore.

~Davy Jones

The Monkees changed my life but ruined my acting career.

~Davy Jones

~Davy Jones

And actually, about three weeks ago, Micky, Peter and I were in Vegas at the MGM Grand. And we did about 12 shows in seven days. It was quite an experience.

~Davy Jones

The only people who didn't like it [The Monkees] were the French, and they don't even like themselves, so what's the point?

~Davy Jones

I guess it's nice to have someone to love while you're looking for someone to love.

~Davy Jones

I own property in a quiet little town of Pennsylvania.

~Davy Jones

I'd like a glass of cold gravy with a hair in it, please.

~Davy Jones

Ah, love. A dreadful bond! And yet, so easily severed.

~Davy Jones

I'm really a clean-cut kid.

~Davy Jones

Life is cruel. Why should the afterlife be any different? I offer you a choice. Join my crew...and postpone the judgment. One hundred years before the mast. Will ye serve?

~Davy Jones

The thing is, the reader doesn't want to hear about bad times.

~Davy Jones

In the office, the mail that came in was always 10 to 1 for me.

~Davy Jones

I know a lot of people in the retirement village that I have a house in in Florida that are on the Internet and are reading the paper on the Internet, and they're communicating on the Internet.

~Davy Jones
