The ideal situation would be to bypass all of the drama and mayhem and just get the music right to the people. I'm confident that we'll eventually figure it out.

~Debbie Gibson

I'm glad I started so young, because you are really able to endure so much at that age.

~Debbie Gibson

One of my favorite songs from the album is a song called 'For Better or Worse,' and it's basically about unconditional love, which is, I'd say, an ongoing theme in my personal life.

~Debbie Gibson

I'm kind of a quirky dresser usually. Like today, I'm actually pretty put together, but I dress kind of off sometimes, but that's just part of my personality.

~Debbie Gibson

Think with your heart, speak with your soul.

~Debbie Gibson

I think that celebrities should never underestimate their power. I mean just to draw attention, because then people get involved on a personal level.

~Debbie Gibson

Being on stage is what I enjoy.

~Debbie Gibson

I wouldn't say I was bullied per se, but I did get a lot of unwanted attention because I was musical and stood out. In school you don't want to stand out; you want to blend in.

~Debbie Gibson

I've managed to keep my career going in a way that suits me. I'll perform, and then I'll go home to my actual life, and I've never been so visible.

~Debbie Gibson

I've learned to have a sense of humor about myself. Lord knows everyone else does!

~Debbie Gibson

I used to want to be the quickest, loudest, and sharpest. I think as time has gone on, I've gotten more relaxed.

~Debbie Gibson

I think I have a very nice demeanor, but at the same time, when pushed, I will freak out. I have a backbone, but I don't feel like I'm terrible about it.

~Debbie Gibson

I think any parent that makes their kid sit at a piano against their will and practice, they're going to have a kid that's not going to want to play the piano.

~Debbie Gibson

I spent a lot of my life schlepping around New York with people not doing things for me.
