~Debbie Harry

I always say the new album is the best one yet. I always feel that - I really do, because it's the latest and it's the newest and it's a little bit better.

~Debbie Harry

The only person I really believe in is me.

~Debbie Harry

I could be a housewife! I guess I've vacuumed a couple of times.

~Debbie Harry

I do know the effect that music still has on me - I'm completely vulnerable to it. I'm seduced by it.

~Debbie Harry

The only thing I really wanted to be was a beatnik, and look what happened: I ended up being in a band.

~Debbie Harry

Capote wrote every day. He said that's the only way, you have to sit down every day and do it.

~Debbie Harry

How can one be a woman and not be a feminist? That's my question.

~Debbie Harry

We probably, as primitive people, made music before we actually had a language, and that's where language comes from.

~Debbie Harry

To be an artist you have to be as much a businessman to succeed, you have to spend an equal amount of time doing business as you spend doing your craft.

~Debbie Harry

You have to leave room for the other person's ego.

~Debbie Harry

Lately I've been believing that music predates speech.

~Debbie Harry

But, you know, the issues of humanity and what is fair treatment and good treatment of a fellow human being should not really be based on a personal sense of right and wrong or judgment.

~Debbie Harry

And I wasn't convinced that I was the most talented person in the world.

~Debbie Harry
