If the grass is greener on the other side of the fence, you can bet the water bill is higher.

~Debbie Macomber

Practicing an attitude of gratitude spills over to acts of generosity.

~Debbie Macomber

Our world was created with a sense of order. For every loss, there is a gain. Sometimes we are so blinded by the loss that we don't see the gain, don't recognize the gift.

~Debbie Macomber

Cultivating the habit of good deeds will not only affect those around us, it will improve our own emotional well being.

~Debbie Macomber

Grandpa Patterson used to say: Never approach a bull from the front, a horse from the rear or a fool from any direction.

~Debbie Macomber

Humans tend to build walls when they should be opening doors.

~Debbie Macomber

The best way to get even is to forget.

~Debbie Macomber

She said interruptions were simply God's appointments.

~Debbie Macomber

Feed your faith and your doubts will starve to death.

~Debbie Macomber

It's all right to sit on your pity pot every now and again. Just be sure to flush when you are finished. Mrs. Miracle

~Debbie Macomber

I am a big popcorn fanatic. I love popcorn. In fact one year for my birthday, my husband bought me one of those big popcorn machines like they have in movie theaters.

~Debbie Macomber

Sometimes, I think we're afraid to admit we want certain things. Especially things that contradict the image we have of ourselves.

~Debbie Macomber

We all face difficulties of our own, and how comforting it is to immerse yourself in a book - my book, any book, any romance. It's entertainment, it's escape, and it can even be an inspiration!

~Debbie Macomber

Your heart has to let your head know what it wants.

~Debbie Macomber

Here's where the real power of generosity comes in. Often, the more we give, the more we receive.

~Debbie Macomber

God gave the Angels wings and humans chocolate. Mrs. Miracle

~Debbie Macomber

I love the way knitting brings people together.

~Debbie Macomber

People are funny. They want the front of the bus, the middle of the road and the back of the church. â€”Mrs. Miracle

~Debbie Macomber

Romance focuses on emotions and on relationships, both of which are fundamentally important to women.

~Debbie Macomber

Maybe money can't buy love - but it can get you practically everything else.

~Debbie Macomber

Some marriages are made in heaven, but they all have to be maintained on earth. Mrs Miracle

~Debbie Macomber

But although she was with family and friends, she'd never felt more alone. She felt as if she'd lost a vital part of herself and she had - her heart.

~Debbie Macomber

I'd found love -- only to discover how fleeting it can be.

~Debbie Macomber

While it may not be a simple act, offering forgiveness not only has the power to heal relationships, it strengthens the well-being of those who give this life-changing gift.

~Debbie Macomber

Readers have actually changed the way I've done things, changed the course of my career even, about four or five times. Just from reader feedback.

~Debbie Macomber

We're each our own person, we live our own lives, make our own mistakes, learn from them and move forward.

~Debbie Macomber

I'm dyslexic, although they didn't have a word for it when I was in grade school. The teachers said I had 'word blindness.
