A hero is somebody who is selfless, who is generous in spirit, who just tries to give back as much as possible and help people. A hero to me is someone who saves people and who really deeply cares.

~Debi Mazar

With the breast-feeding, I really love the bonding. Real life is more important to me.

~Debi Mazar

I started doing makeup to make a living. Then I said, You're not supposed to be putting powder on other people. You're supposed to be powdering yourself.

~Debi Mazar

Being typecast is a great thing for an actor. I was considered one of the New York mob actors.

~Debi Mazar

Some people in LA are addicted. They have to be here. My personal life is stronger than my professional life, in terms of priorities.

~Debi Mazar

Sometimes in life you have to make a decision and make sacrifices.

~Debi Mazar

Doing makeup was a way to create characters, only I got tired of doing it for other people.

~Debi Mazar

Being a publicist is like management in a lot of ways - you're their friend, you're their mother, you're their confidante.

~Debi Mazar

I truly have a love-hate thing with the press.

~Debi Mazar

I was doing an hour drama on television and a Jackie Chan movie in Toronto, so I was on a plane every three days.

~Debi Mazar

When you come into our house, you get a flavor for our life, our travels, our kids, our 18-year-old poodle who is like, blind, deaf and incontinent but so happy.

~Debi Mazar

When my mother was raising me, she moved us upstate to the Woodstock area. Our closest neighbor was a mile away. She planted all her own vegetables.

~Debi Mazar

I have a fuller figure and sometimes like to hide my legs. Palazzo pants accentuate my small waist and make me feel a little like Katharine Hepburn.

~Debi Mazar

I'm never sloppy, and I never wear jeans. I don't work one look in particular, but it's usually retro - I'm a flea-market freak. And detailed - I'm always very done, even at the gym.

~Debi Mazar

I wanted to come up with a hybrid show of sorts that wasn't your traditional 'dump and stir' type of cooking show.

~Debi Mazar

I used to watch my grandmother make fancy, Julia Child-style beef bourguignon. And growing up in New York City, I was exposed to many cultures. I experimented with Puerto Rican and Jamaican food.

~Debi Mazar

I think my career would probably be in a better place had I been more aggressive. But I don't have it in me. I'm not a competitive person, and I'm also really private.

~Debi Mazar

I live in Italy part time, and they're obsessed with what's happening in LA too. They make fun of Americans, but the world wants to know what's going on in Hollywood.

~Debi Mazar

Desmo is my guard dog, but he has a sweet side, too. Nothing entertains him (or me) more than when I blow bubbles and he can chase them.

~Debi Mazar

The kitchen is the heart of every home, for the most part. It evokes memories of your family history.

~Debi Mazar

I've always been a foodie. My grandmother got me hooked on cooking.
