I could not have made it this far had there not been angels along the way.

~Della Reese

If you're not getting the things you want, need or desire, it's because you have not accepted that you can have them.

~Della Reese

So whatever it is you want, need or desire or just like to have, you better try to get it now, 'cause this is the only time there is.

~Della Reese

When you really believe in God, it gives you a courage, a confidence that enables you to meet the things coming.

~Della Reese

I'm an honest hoe, and all my hoes is honest.

~Della Reese

There are people much less fortunate than us, and I don't mean people hungry sleeping in the streets either

~Della Reese

My mother was a personal friend of God's. They had ongoing conversations.

~Della Reese

I don't see how I possibly could have come from where I entered the planet to where I am now if there had not been angels along the way.

~Della Reese

Its very seldom you get paid for doing what you love and telling the truth at the same time. It seems they dont often coincide.

~Della Reese

You see, I was born in the slums, that was before the ghetto. The ghetto was kind of refined; the slums was right there on the ground.

~Della Reese

Yes, I'm a Pastor of a church called Understand Principles for Better Living Church, in Los Angeles, CA.

~Della Reese

Each week, from a different point of view, you get another look at God, and that's exciting to me.

~Della Reese

You dont have to let your life be destroyed by diabetes. You can reclaim your life.

~Della Reese

I have the background singers of Ray Charles, the background singers of Smokey Robinson, and the background singers of Barry White and I built a choir around that.

~Della Reese

Sometimes I think the choir gets a little ticked with me because I haven't sung in a long time and I can sing

~Della Reese

So, yes, I believe in angels, absolutely, I do.

~Della Reese

They started to try and keep us off the air in the beginning.
