It's time for democrats to grow a backbone and stand up for what we believe.

~Deval Patrick

We have drained common sense out of our politics. The more we focus on tactics and games, the more good people check out and give up

~Deval Patrick

Be present - and see what a difference it makes in your lives and in the world.

~Deval Patrick

I've learned over the years that identity has a whole lot less to do with location or other people's expectations than with your own sense of self and self-confidence.

~Deval Patrick

Don't tell me words don't matter.

~Deval Patrick

It's a free country. I wish it weren't.

~Deval Patrick

I view the experiences that I have had - both the tough ones and the pleasant ones - as gifts.

~Deval Patrick

If you are ever going to move beyond where you stand at that moment you have to conjure a picture in your head of where you want to go.

~Deval Patrick

Let's go tell everyone we meet that, when the American dream is at stake, you want Barack Obama in charge.

~Deval Patrick

For too long, Democrats have been telling people what they want to hear. I'm going to tell you what I believe.

~Deval Patrick

Hope for the best and work for it.

~Deval Patrick

A great teacher who is full of excitement and love for her students can make all the difference in their lives.

~Deval Patrick

"Government" is the name we give to the things we choose to do together.

~Deval Patrick

I do identify with St. Patrick, not just in name. He drove the snakes out of Ireland. I intend to drive the snakes out of the State House

~Deval Patrick

One great thing about being a black man is that if you put on a hat, you can move around unnoticed.

~Deval Patrick

We're Americans. We shape our own future. Let's start by standing up for President Barack Obama.

~Deval Patrick

I'm planning to stay in politics now, but, you know, George Burns worked until he was 100. I don't know. I don't want to be a Senator until I'm honored.

~Deval Patrick

Anybody who knows me knows that I'm no attack dog.
