Whatever you want in life, other people are going to want it too. Believe in yourself enough to accept the idea that you have an equal right to it.

~Diane Sawyer

One day you're the statue. One day you're the pigeon.

~Diane Sawyer

Follow what you are genuinely passionate about and let that guide you to your destination.

~Diane Sawyer

A good marriage is a contest of generosity.

~Diane Sawyer

People assume you can't be shy and be on television. They're wrong.

~Diane Sawyer

Do something you really love in the most adventurous place you can and make sure it helps other people.

~Diane Sawyer

Don't let other people tell you who you are.

~Diane Sawyer

I have a liberal definition of news because I think news can be what excites people. I'm not very sanctimonious about what news is and isn't.

~Diane Sawyer

I'm always fascinated by the way memory diffuses fact.

~Diane Sawyer

Wake up curious, and determined to find an answer

~Diane Sawyer

I so believe in the fact that we are somehow born to love the truth

~Diane Sawyer

The interesting thing is always to see if you can find a fact that will change your mind about something, to test and see if you can.

~Diane Sawyer

If there were a rehab for curiosity; I'd be in it.

~Diane Sawyer

I think the one lesson I have learned is that there is no substitute for paying attention.

~Diane Sawyer

An investigation may take six months. A quick interview, profile, a day.

~Diane Sawyer

... the greatest act of love is to pay attention.

~Diane Sawyer

Competition is easier to accept if you realize it is not an act of oppression or abrasion-I've worked with my best friends in direct competition.

~Diane Sawyer

I love the early process of asking questions about a story and deciding which questions matter most.

~Diane Sawyer

I don't know why I'm saying I'm brave.

~Diane Sawyer

I have a contract but it's not a commitment in the ordinary sense. It's our ongoing conversation.

~Diane Sawyer

If you're curious, you'll probably be a good journalist because we follow our curiosity like cats.

~Diane Sawyer

Start in a small TV station so you can make all of your embarrassing mistakes early and in front of fewer people!

~Diane Sawyer

People tend to vote the present tense - not the subjective.

~Diane Sawyer

The most fun is getting paid to learn things.

~Diane Sawyer

A criticism is just a really bad way of making a request...so just make the request.

~Diane Sawyer

I've always found a cure for the blues is wandering into something unknown, and resting there, before coming back to whatever weight you were carrying.

~Diane Sawyer

I like talking. I didn't know at the time I would have to worry so much about my hair.

~Diane Sawyer

I get involved in the beginning, less in the middle, and very much at the end.

~Diane Sawyer

American Idol, I love. I think it's a passing fancy but not passing so soon.

~Diane Sawyer

The dream is not the destination but the journey.

~Diane Sawyer

Hope changes everything, doesn't it?

~Diane Sawyer

Whenever you are blue or lonely or stricken by some humiliating thing you did, the cure and the hope is in caring about other people.

~Diane Sawyer

I don't think it's about entertainment. I think it's about being ourselves.

~Diane Sawyer

I love cabdrivers. I love their unpredictable manners. I love the pictures of their families on the visors. I love the fact that most of them think I'm Martha Stewart.

~Diane Sawyer

Einstein was always looking for a unifying principle for the universe. I think anxiety about hair is the unifying principle.

~Diane Sawyer
