When you're sad, you're not sad. You are merely oblivious to the good things in your life. There is always a crack of light in the darkness. Find it.

~Dianna Agron

I must say, I am trying to live my life with a sharpie marker approach. You can't erase the strokes you've made, but each step is much bolder and more deliberate.

~Dianna Agron

In high school, I taught dance classes for 3-year-olds up to 16-year-olds, so between that and some bat mitzvah money, I saved up a pretty good nest egg to move to L.A.

~Dianna Agron

Look, we are human, we make mistakes. I will gladly shout from the rooftops that I am not perfect. Nor will I ever be.

~Dianna Agron

We are all the best versions of ourselves when we have love and acceptance in our lives.

~Dianna Agron

Once a month, try something you don't think you'd be good at. You can find such happy surprises.

~Dianna Agron

Kindness moves mountains. Acceptance opens doors, makes room for change, diffuses misunderstanding.

~Dianna Agron

Maybe I was a pirate in my past life. I didn't kill people, though. I was just a badass.

~Dianna Agron

I've kissed girls before, it's fun!

~Dianna Agron

Beautiful. True. Words to remind yourself, words to live by.

~Dianna Agron

I'm a very understanding person. That's something I was raised to be aware of - not everybody has the same shoes to fill or walks the same way or is on the same path.

~Dianna Agron

Without love we are not truly living.

~Dianna Agron

I think that people vibe off your energy and I'm a pretty mellow person.

~Dianna Agron

I used to wear more makeup, but I've learned to enjoy being natural.

~Dianna Agron

I think that as an artist, the more that you can do to diversify, and kind of challenge yourself, the more you grow.

~Dianna Agron

Dancing is why I love music as much as I do and vice-versa, and there aren't many things better than those two combined.

~Dianna Agron

I feel as if I go to Africa, I may never come back. I'm just going to live with the animals and adopt an elephant, and it's going to be my friend.

~Dianna Agron

I am not a sports girl.

~Dianna Agron

Stress is the worst thing. That's the ultimate demise of any good thing.

~Dianna Agron

Photography has definitely been my favorite way to remember things. At least for me that's how my brain processes things, of memories or moments.

~Dianna Agron

Growing up I wanted to be a mixture of Audrey Hepburn and Lucille Ball. Apparently I told my mum when I was eight that I wanted to be an actor.

~Dianna Agron

Halloween festivities included an epic scavenger hunt & lots of Looney Tunes.

~Dianna Agron

Every day is an opportunity to fall or hurt yourself.

~Dianna Agron

What's great is that starting a blog can get you lot of attention for your writing. But it doesn't have to be for anybody other than yourself.

~Dianna Agron

I've been lucky to travel through quite a bit of Europe and Australia, but I would love to do Asia and South America and South Africa.

~Dianna Agron

Painting, drawing - I'm really into photography, I've done it since high school.

~Dianna Agron

We do have a love fest [at home]. It's like, 'I'm making you a cupcake.' Then it's like, 'Well, I made you a cake.' And it's like, 'Well I made you a cake with a cupcake on top and candles.'

~Dianna Agron

Well I've also kind of noticed that, whatever energy that you put out, is kind of the energy that you receive. And so people are just really lovely and kind and soft spoken with me.

~Dianna Agron

I sold my first screenplay six months before 'Glee,' but they had the option for a year and now it's back with me.

~Dianna Agron

My back-up plan is always to take a trip. That's never a bad option. That's always a good option.

~Dianna Agron

When you work really hard, and it's organic and together, you can have more fun.
