The glory of sport is witnessing a well-coached team perform as a single unit, striving for a common goal and ultimately bringing distinction to the jersey the players represent.

~Dick Vitale

A winner is someone who can look in the mirror at the end of the day and say in pursuit of my goal and dreams I gave my best.

~Dick Vitale

Life is simple. Make good decisions and good things happen. Make bad decisions and bad things happen.

~Dick Vitale

A loser is someone who makes excuses and alibis and blames everyone else for their losses and failures.

~Dick Vitale

People that don't know me think that basketball is my life 24/7. Trust me, there is much more to my life. My number one priority in my life is my family.

~Dick Vitale

Twelve for 23... It doesn't take a genius to see that's under 50 percent.

~Dick Vitale

One day to see that headline, not that someone won a basketball championship, but to see that a cure for cancer has been found, will be a great day for mankind.

~Dick Vitale

Looking back, I remember telling my daughters that we didn't have money, pizzazz and a lot of the things we have today, but we had so much love and we lived like millionaires.

~Dick Vitale

It is time for everyone to sit down -the NCAA, the NBA, the players union and the coaching fraternity-and come up with suitable solutions to these problems.

~Dick Vitale

You'd have to live in a cave not to know about the Carrier Dome. It put Syracuse on the map.

~Dick Vitale

It was an incredible effort by the Irish down in Tallahassee. Jameis Winston was too tough in the second half; congrats to the Seminoles.

~Dick Vitale

It's the greatest achievement I've ever witnessed in all my years of being a coach and a television personality. I really, absolutely have been blown away.

~Dick Vitale

My parents were my heroes and my role models. So I thought long and hard over decisions that I would make because I never wanted to disappoint them and break their hearts.

~Dick Vitale

I'm living the American dream.

~Dick Vitale

Today in coaching, it's a two-way street. They can fire you whenever they want. Bottom line: It's all about what you can do to better yourself professionally. This is a better move.

~Dick Vitale

The courtside seats belong to the kids.

~Dick Vitale

Really, UCLA's a great place as well, but they don't have the kind of environment they have here. The fans here have a passion.
