I like being a strong, independent woman, and to be honest, I was never afraid to be on my own.

~Dido Armstrong

My dad's Irish music was such a huge influence.

~Dido Armstrong

In fact, I'd just like to own something. Everyone thinks I'm glamorous, rich and famous but all I've got is some recording equipment and a battered old BMW.

~Dido Armstrong

I always want to bring emotion across in a straightforward way. I don't want to get histrionic when I'm singing. For me that's just not interesting; it goes too far down one road.

~Dido Armstrong

The older you get, the more you realize you're drifting toward a direction, and sometimes your significant other drifts into an opposite direction. You can't blame anybody for it.

~Dido Armstrong

There will be no white flag above my door, I'm in love and always will be

~Dido Armstrong

I really enjoy being single again. I spent a lot of time in a relationship and the nearer we came to the end, the more difficult it got. You don't see things clearly as long as you're still involved.

~Dido Armstrong

It's great to just disappear, grab a suitcase, switch the answering machine on and just go somewhere else.

~Dido Armstrong

Inside everybody's hiding something.

~Dido Armstrong

And we danced, and we drank
And I've seen something you probably never got the chance to see
Don't worry, Mary
Cause I'm taking care of Danny
And he's taking care of me

~Dido Armstrong

I write about the things I feel strongly about.

~Dido Armstrong

It's much better when I go out with my mates and we stop talking about me like I'm some sort of egomaniac. It's great when we can just have a drink.

~Dido Armstrong

Life for rent means that my life isn't really my own, I only rented it for a while, but if I don't manage to buy it, to own it, then nothing of what I think is mine is really mine.

~Dido Armstrong

It's too late and it's too bad, don't think of me.

~Dido Armstrong

Why don't I watch the ocean?
My lover's gone.
No earthly ships will ever
bring him home again
bring him home again.

~Dido Armstrong

To me, there's nothing worse than going to a concert and you're so looking forward to hearing your favorite song and they never play it. You're gutted.

~Dido Armstrong

I get up, go shopping, clean the flat, cook my boyfriend's dinner. It's great selling records, but it doesn't mean you have to turn into a freak.

~Dido Armstrong

I feel really lucky to have found musical success before I'm 30, to be doing absolutely what I want to do. I would be quite happy if I died tomorrow.

~Dido Armstrong

It's actually amazing because you go so far into another side of your brain when you're studying something completely different, and I loved it.

~Dido Armstrong

Thirty is not an age for a woman anymore.

~Dido Armstrong

You never forget where you were when you write a song; it's a very proper memory, so I knew exactly where I was and what I was doing for each track. It was like going into a time machine.

~Dido Armstrong

It's all right to make mistakes, you're only human
Inside everybody's hiding something.

~Dido Armstrong

I spent a lot of my childhood in my own head, making up stories. I didn't have a lot of outside influences, so I was able to make my own decisions about what I wanted to do.

~Dido Armstrong

I'm so lonely I don't even want to be with myself anymore.

~Dido Armstrong

I'm too much of a control freak.

~Dido Armstrong

I feel very warm towards Mum and Dad for giving us the independence they did. My childhood, and the fact we didn't have a TV, gave me a boundless imagination.

~Dido Armstrong

Looking back, I think that's why I did music. I'd get home from school and the house would be so quiet.

~Dido Armstrong

I went to study some orchestration stuff because I got so inspired working with all the orchestras.
