I never wanted to set the world on fire. So I never had to burn any bridges behind me.

~Dinah Shore

Trouble is a part of life, and if you don't share it, you don't give the person who loves you enough chance to love you enough.

~Dinah Shore

I earn and pay my own way as a great many women do today. Why should unmarried women be discriminated against - unmarried men are not.

~Dinah Shore

I'd like people to remember that I really tried everything within my range of reality. And that whatever I did, I did with all my heart.

~Dinah Shore

Tennis is like a wonderful, longstanding relationship with a husband. Golf is a tempestuous, lousy lover; it's totally unpredictable, a constant surprise.

~Dinah Shore

Trouble is part of your life

~Dinah Shore

And I've never taken up a sport just because it was a social fad.

~Dinah Shore

It's a faithless love, but you hit four good shots and you've started your day right.

~Dinah Shore

I can't remember a time when I wasn't singing.

~Dinah Shore

When I was four or five, my father had a general store in Winchester and I don't think the farmers could ever leave on Saturday afternoon until I had been placed up on the counter to sing.

~Dinah Shore

Bing Crosby sings like all people think they sing in the shower.

~Dinah Shore

I earn and pay my own way as a great many women do today.

~Dinah Shore

I owe everything - my success and happiness - to men.

~Dinah Shore

When rock came along the lyrics and melodies became less important and it bothered me to think that perhaps they might not regain the value they have to music - they are music.
