A nuclear-power plant is infinitely safer than eating, because 300 people choke to death on food every year.

~Dixie Lee Ray

The reality is that zero defects in products plus zero pollution plus zero risk on the job is equivalent to maximum growth of government plus zero economic growth plus runaway inflation.

~Dixie Lee Ray

Well tended garden is better than a neglected wood lot

~Dixie Lee Ray

We shouldn't accept things just because somebody says so.

~Dixie Lee Ray

The government should set a goal for a clean environment but not mandate how that goal should be implemented.

~Dixie Lee Ray

Mankind is considered (by the radical environmentalists) the lowest and the meanest of all species and is blamed for everything.

~Dixie Lee Ray

The organic material, as the laws of chemistry state, can neither be created nor destroyed.

~Dixie Lee Ray

They fail to recognize the broad biological principle that organic material is constantly being recycled. Everything has a time of being - a birth, a life span, and a death.

~Dixie Lee Ray

There is a deliberate and quite outspoken attack on the whole idea of people owning private property.

~Dixie Lee Ray

I do not believe that the government is in any position to say exactly how every single business and every single activity shall reach those performances.

~Dixie Lee Ray

Beware of averages. The average person has one breast and one testicle.

~Dixie Lee Ray

Anything that the private sector can do, the government can do it worse.

~Dixie Lee Ray

I have confidence in people's basic common sense.

~Dixie Lee Ray

Nature did not make me willowy.

~Dixie Lee Ray

Everybody is exposed to radiation. A little bit more or a little bit less is of no consequence.

~Dixie Lee Ray

I think people are going to return to sanity when they see how ridiculous many of these charges are, and how the predictions are not borne out.

~Dixie Lee Ray

No question about that, the radicals are in charge.
