I wrote my thesis on the benefits of war and very near got thrown out of college. But I can show you where the greatest advancement of mankind comes under stress and strain, not comfort.

~Don Young

If I have my way, I'm going to dissolve the Forest Service. They're in the business of harvesting trees and they're not harvesting trees, so why have them anymore ?

~Don Young

We're the only creature God ever created that doesn't want to adapt. We want to make it stand still. And one thing that's constant is nature is constantly changing.

~Don Young

There's nothing pretty about ice. Ice grows nothing. But we've got this in our minds that we've got to make everything cold.

~Don Young

That's one of our biggest problems, it's always somebody else's fault instead of our own fault.

~Don Young

Don't you ever touch me. Don't ever touch me. The last guy who touched me ended up on the ground dead.

~Don Young

I would encourage the next commander in chief to be more cooperative and communicative with Congress, particularly when entering a conflict.

~Don Young

If you can't eat it, can't sleep under it, can't wear it or make something from it, it's not worth anything.

~Don Young

You've got to be willing to forgive and say, 'God, get something good out of something bad.' And if you'll make that choice... God will do it.

~Don Young

If it is warming, it's because it's happened before, cyclitic, it will happen again, regardless of what you and I do.

~Don Young

Russia's increased Arctic presence. The Arctic has vast natural resources and security value, and Russia is drastically increasing its footprint in the region.
