They say things happen for a reason You don't do them, they won't.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

Nobody in my family ever surfed, but they would always bring me to the beach.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

I started surfing at the age of 10, and then turned professional at the age of 16, which was right around the same time I took up the guitar. So, the surfing came first.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

I grew up knowing [Jack Johnson], surfing with him.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

I fell in love with these two passions that I made into careers, and I've never had to give one up.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

[The Surf Lodge performance] is sort of like an annual thing.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

I travel a lot, and being in different countries and a part of cultures, that's just such a huge inspiration for music, and one way or another, you get influenced.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

Through my surfing, I met all my friends that helped me out in the music world, and so that's kind of how it all began. So, it was the surfing and then the music.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

I grew up in Orange County, California, all over the beaches of San Clemente and that area.

Definitely my wife and my kid [are my biggest inspiration].

~Donavon Frankenreiter

Being a husband and a dad is my inspiration.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

Traveling is also a big inspiration for me.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

[Jack Johnson] really helped me make the record, put it out, and then let me tour with him for two years. He really helped me out.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

I don't really try to set any long-term goals.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

I just think it's amazing that I'm able to do both singing and surfing.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

My wife really pushed me in that direction, to write my own songs and start singing, so I think having the whole family thing is such a huge thing.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

One Christmas, I just begged my parents like "I want to try to surf on a real board instead of these boogie boards and rafts" and they got me one.

~Donavon Frankenreiter

[Jack Johnson]gave me my whole start in music, which was the coolest thing ever.
