My father was a middle manager at an oil company, but I never knew anything about his work. Whatever business acumen I have just got gleaned over the years.

~Donna Mills

I'm back to doing everything I used to, loving life as ever.

~Donna Mills

My message is - keep moving. If you do, you'll keep arthritis at bay.

~Donna Mills

Even colors were important to me. If it was a somber scene, the colors were muted and dark. If it was a happy or seductive scene, the colors were brighter.

~Donna Mills

Scarlett O'Hara didn't think she was manipulating. That's just the way she got what she wanted.

~Donna Mills

I always wanted to know what lens they were on, how close they were. I didn't do it with a plan in mind, but I would instinctively gear what I was doing toward what lenses they were using.

~Donna Mills

You know, when they called me about the role, I thought Knots Landing was a show about a houseboat with Andy Griffith!

~Donna Mills

I thought it was very important that femininity wasn't lost.

~Donna Mills

One of my favorite movies is The Little Foxes.

~Donna Mills

I was brought up Catholic, and my family is still very religious.

~Donna Mills

I always wanted to go against hat grain because it was too restricting.

~Donna Mills

I feel more comfortable in front of a camera than anywhere else.

~Donna Mills

I also loved musicals because I was a dancer.

~Donna Mills

I was tired of playing the goodie-two-shoes.

~Donna Mills

I always wore the highest heels possible, because the other women on the show were tall.
