If we have true love with sympathy and patient labor, we shall not go about scrutinizing our neighbor's shortcomings.

~Dorotheus of Gaza

The more one is united to his neighbor the more he is united to God.

~Dorotheus of Gaza

Conscience is called the adversary, because it always opposes our evil will; it reminds us of what we ought to do but do not, and condemns us if we do something we ought not.

~Dorotheus of Gaza

Let us be convinced that nothing can happen to us apart from the providence of God.

~Dorotheus of Gaza

A great means to preserve continual peace and tranquillity of soul is to receive everything from the hands of God, both great and small, and in whatever way it comes.

~Dorotheus of Gaza

The devil loves and always rejoices over the ungoverned; those who are not subject to one who has power, under God, to help them and to give them a hand.

~Dorotheus of Gaza

The grace of God comes swiftly to the soul when endurance is no longer possible.

~Dorotheus of Gaza

In the mercy of God, the little thing done with humility will enable us to be found in the same place as the saints who have labored much and been true servants of God.

~Dorotheus of Gaza

Even if we cannot endure much labor because we are weak let us be set on humbling ourselves.

~Dorotheus of Gaza

In the measure that we pay attention and take care to carry out what we hear, God will always enlighten us and make us understand His will.
