But I'll tell you this: When I lose my athleticism, it's time to go.

~Doug Flutie

There's nothing better than excelling at a game you love. There's nothing worse than thinking your accomplishments as a player outweigh your responsibilities as a person.

~Doug Flutie

The public doesn't care about my size. It's just something for the media to talk about.

~Doug Flutie

Always do your best because a pat on the back is real close to a kick in the pants.

~Doug Flutie

The Flutie Bowl is a great event that brings together people who really care about the autism community. We always have a great time bowling and playing music.

~Doug Flutie

The more chances you get, the more comfortable you feel. I'm ready to go out there if something happens. I'll feel comfortable if I am ever called on.

~Doug Flutie

Hey, I'm just looking for an excuse to retire so I can play summer league baseball, go coach my nephews, play pickup basketball. I've always had that ability to move on to the next thing.

~Doug Flutie

The biggest issue about the height factor is the bias that the NFL has about it.

~Doug Flutie

I was very close to playing at an Ivy League School. The Division I schools, when a coach would come visit all he would talk about was my size.

~Doug Flutie

All of those guys who told me that I was too short and how complicated the game was, it is not that complicated. It is the same game I have always played.

~Doug Flutie

It's nice to have a situation where you can make it fun.

~Doug Flutie

The day I retire is the day I'll feel old. I'm not there yet.

~Doug Flutie

My favorite song to play is 'Smokin'" by Boston. I actually had a chance to play that with the band Boston live.
