With a good melody... music gets me through everything.

~Drake Bell

I wake up in the morning, walk downstairs, and just bang on the piano and write about what's going on in the world around me.

~Drake Bell

Play every day. I don't know. I'm not sure what kind of advice I would give. You just have to do it every second that you can.

~Drake Bell

The fans are especially amazing in Mexico. You look out your window, and there are fans that stay out there all night long.

~Drake Bell

It wasn't like a "I know I wanted to do this," I was sort of just - I was five and my dad kinda said hey, you wanna be an actor and I said sure.

~Drake Bell

I don't really have a certain format that I go by.

~Drake Bell

The hardest thing about being famous? Just working I guess. Just work. The famous part's the luxury.

~Drake Bell

Most people spend their lives on their endeavors, and I get the privilege to have been doing this since I was five. I get to go play and have fun and entertain people.

~Drake Bell

Hopefully I'll fit the television in there. Maybe it'll be like music and television and movies. I mean, who knows? But hopefully I can be successful at everything I do.

~Drake Bell

I'm horrible at these things, 'cause I'm a horrible date. What's a good date? A nice dinner and a movie? I don't know. What are dates? An amusement park? What am I supposed to say? Hmm. I have no idea.

~Drake Bell

I grew up on Nickelodeon. On All That and Are You Afraid of the Dark, and Salute Your Shorts and Rocco's Modern Life and all that. That was my generation.

~Drake Bell

I love the atmosphere at the mall - everything about Christmas. I don't think anything specific gets me in the holiday spirit except for the holidays themselves.
