That's the only reason I'm here. I don't need to play the game for any other reason than to win a championship.

~Drew Bledsoe

I kind of picked up the game at an early age. The way that other kids would learn what a fork or a spoon is.

~Drew Bledsoe

You want hot days to get your fruit ripe but then you want it to cool off nicely at night so that the grapes stay on the vine longer and develop complexity.

~Drew Bledsoe

I had a great career and I enjoyed all of it, with the exception of losing.

~Drew Bledsoe

I'm not fast. But there are a lot of guys that are a hell of a lot slower than I am. Somebody wants to do a pay-per-view race between me and [Tom] Brady, sign me up.

~Drew Bledsoe

The amount of work and the amount of both physical and emotional investment it takes to get to the top.

~Drew Bledsoe

I feel pretty good when I get out of bed in the morning. I don't feel all beat up, which is nice.

~Drew Bledsoe

Playing in New England and the Boston area, the fans are so passionate about their sports if you don't play well, they'll let you know so I know it's not something that they take lightly.

~Drew Bledsoe

We're phenomenally blessed in the Walla Walla Valley. We have great, complex soil that's nutrient-rich but fairly porous.

~Drew Bledsoe

The positives of retiring outweighed the positives of returning and my desire to still play.

~Drew Bledsoe

It is the best feeling in the world to have a close game come down to just a couple of plays and you are able to do it.

~Drew Bledsoe

You know, it's a different deal - throwing a football as opposed to throwing a baseball.

~Drew Bledsoe

I retire with a smile on my face, in good health, and ready to spend autumns at my kids' games instead of my own. I'm excited to start the next chapter of my life.
