When I did Comic Relief, I did it to be on the show; it's a badge of honor as a comedian to do that show.

~Drew Carey

Even when people are rich and successful on TV shows, there's always some trouble - you have to poke holes in them, throw them out of a job, put a pie in the face.

~Drew Carey

Learn how to set goals. That's the key to everything. That includes designing your own success. You define what the goal is, it's not somebody else's goal, it's yours.

~Drew Carey

Oh, you hate your job? Why didn't you say so? There's a support group for that. It's called everybody, and they meet at the bar.

~Drew Carey

I'm a big believer in overcoming and achieving and doing things and not feeling sorry for yourself.

~Drew Carey

I love the normalcy of Cleveland. There's regular people there.

~Drew Carey

There's no way I can justify my salary level, but I'm learning to live with it.

~Drew Carey

You say tomato, I say bourbon and coke.

~Drew Carey

Things don't make me nearly as happy as talking and having a beer with my friends. And that's something everyone can do.

~Drew Carey

Liquor prohibition led to the rise of organized crime in America, and drug prohibition has led to the rise of the gang problems we have now.

~Drew Carey

I tried out for 'Jeopardy' once, when they came to Cleveland, but I didn't make it.

~Drew Carey

I was raised by just my mom. See, my father died when I was eight years old. At least, that's what he told us in the letter.

~Drew Carey

The first Monopoly game I played with my brothers, I hated losing so much, I just had to beat them.

~Drew Carey

I could still eat a cheeseburger if I wanted to. I just can't have them every day.

~Drew Carey

My cranky cardiologist says I'm destined to die in the kitchen.

~Drew Carey

What also helps our show is that we never take ourselves seriously.

~Drew Carey

Vegas is everything that's right with America. You can do whatever you want, 24 hours a day. They've effectively legalized everything there.

Some people don't like competition because it makes them work harder, better.

~Drew Carey

I used to go to the library all the time when I was kid. As a teenager, I got a book on how to write jokes at the library, and that, in turn, launched my comedy career.

~Drew Carey

Like I said, all comedy is based on exaggeration, big or small, whatever you can get away with.

~Drew Carey

If you're wearing a Bluetooth thing and you've got that thing on your belt, you are working for somebody else. You are not the guy in charge. That's a really good social status indicator.

~Drew Carey

I see my face in the mirror and go, 'I'm a Halloween costume? That's what they think of me?'

~Drew Carey

The easiest diet is, you know, eat vegetables, eat fresh food. Just a really sensible healthy diet like you read about all the time.

~Drew Carey

I'm not against ratings per se. I think more information is always good. But I certainly don't think the government has to step in and set guidelines for how shows should be rated.

~Drew Carey

The Marines gave me a really strong sense of discipline and a work ethic that kicks in at my job.

~Drew Carey

The less [government] the better.

~Drew Carey

~Drew Carey

On other shows when they get to the end of the scene, they yell 'Cut!'
On Whose Line, we yell 'That's Enough!'

~Drew Carey

I don't think there's hardly a comic out there that does clean material all the way around. There's a couple of guys that are clean, but I'm not one of them.

~Drew Carey

If frogs could fly... well we'd still be in this mess, but wouldn't it be neat?

~Drew Carey

After all, game shows are not like working in a coal mine.

~Drew Carey

I was just sick of being fat, you know? You get sick of it. It just really, it's a tiring lifestyle to have.

~Drew Carey

I think a lot of people are afraid of freedom. They want their lives to be controlled, to be put into a box... Why should someone put a limit on how much fun I can have, how much I can accomplish?

~Drew Carey

What good is democracy if you can't get what you want?

~Drew Carey

Yeah, apparently chasing a bus uses different muscles than sitting and eating.

~Drew Carey

Exercise is the main thing that helped me lose weight.

~Drew Carey

But sports photography isn't something you just pick up overnight. You can't do it once a year for fun and expect to do a good job. And I take pride in what I do.

~Drew Carey

I do get the comics online I guess but it's such a pain. I'd rather just get them in the paper and read them.

~Drew Carey

I don't know, people take chances on stage. It's a big free speech zone, a comedy show. So sometimes things happen, you say things that are a little bit off the edge.

~Drew Carey

Sometimes I like [being famous], sometimes I don't. I've always been a people watcher. I like to go to malls and just sit, and I can't do that very easily anymore.

~Drew Carey

What right does a politician have to tell me what I can and cannot watch? Change the channel if you don't like what's on TV!

~Drew Carey

I looked at game show hosting as the bottom of the totem pole, one step away from infomercials. I never watched them myself. However, it's been a lot of fun.

~Drew Carey

You know what I worry about? I worry that when I hit my head, it pushes my hair into my brain, and it will eventually kill me.

~Drew Carey

I just liked stand-up comedy so much. I used to memorize Bill Cosby albums and other people's albums, George Carlin, Flip Wilson.

~Drew Carey

I used to go to the Cleveland Comedy Club all the time. If there was a comic I liked, I'd go see him two or three times that week. Bob Saget was one of those guys.
