You don't notice the referee during the game unless he makes a bad call.

~Drew Curtis

We usually break our records every Monday, so we'll see what turns up tonight after midnight. Next month it'll probably be higher, which is always weird.

~Drew Curtis

Most people treat the news media like the exercise bike they have in their basement. They're glad it's there but they never use it.

~Drew Curtis

Journalism is straying into entertainment. The lines between serious news segments, news entertainment, and news comedy are blurring.

~Drew Curtis

I love Sweden. The entire world should be like Sweden. They all like to drink and get naked, and the women are hot. I can't think of a better nation on the planet.

~Drew Curtis

Don't fight the patent, fight the infringement.

~Drew Curtis

If I see anything remotely like a telcom-run faster internet that you have to pay more to get preferential traffic on, I'm out folks. I've seen this story before, I ran an ISP back in the late 90s.

~Drew Curtis

I think anytime you start relying on a format to get you by you've got weak material to begin with.

~Drew Curtis

It takes people to move crowds in the right direction, crowds by themselves just stand around and mutter.

~Drew Curtis

The 'wisdom of the crowds' is the most ridiculous statement I've heard in my life. Crowds are dumb.

~Drew Curtis

24 hour broadcasts have to stretch limited material to fit 24 hours worth of space.

~Drew Curtis

Journalism is straying into entertainment.

~Drew Curtis

Don't negotiate with terrorists; patent trolls have done more damage to the United States economy than any domestic or foreign terrorist organization in history, every year.
