But the reality is when you write a song, you should be able to strip away all the instruments and just have a song right there with an acoustic guitar and a voice, and the song should be good.

~Dweezil Zappa

The music that is played on the radio all the time or written about in magazines has nothing to do with musicianship.

~Dweezil Zappa

There are so many things that are misunderstood or not recognized about my father's music because they've been filtered by people who work for magazines like Rolling Stone.

~Dweezil Zappa

I really want younger audience members to see kids in their early 20's playing Frank's music and to be inspired to take things to a higher level themselves.

~Dweezil Zappa

I would love to expose multiple younger generations to Frank's music. It's not an easy task because it's not ever going to be plastered all over the radio for the masses.

~Dweezil Zappa

I liked a lot of the things other people liked - Jimi Hendrix, The Beatles, Van Halen, AC/DC - but if I compared it to my dad's music, there just seemed to be elements missing.

~Dweezil Zappa

Just because something has tubes doesn't mean it's the best. I mean, tubes are obviously good, but the circuit of this thing is designed well and it sounds good.

~Dweezil Zappa

I was given all of my dad's guitars when he passed, and they were being stored at the house. My mother decided they were hers again, and she took them all back, and now they're going up for auction.

~Dweezil Zappa

I mean, no offense, but I don't really see why, like guitar players from Creed, or something like that, are on the cover of guitar magazines. Almost anybody can sit down and learn to play those songs.

~Dweezil Zappa

I feel that through my father's music I've found my own voice in my own playing.

~Dweezil Zappa

Music can be so disturbing and frustrating. I mean the business side of it. The actual making music part is fun, but the business side of it is just so out of control, has nothing to do with anything.

~Dweezil Zappa

I'm game for anything fun.

~Dweezil Zappa

I don't care about a social life.

~Dweezil Zappa

There's no difference in a lot of people's minds between good musicians and popular musicians.

~Dweezil Zappa

If there's some work to be done that seems like it will be fun, I'll do it. I don't take anything seriously at all.

~Dweezil Zappa

The Silvertop and the Goldtop both had subtlety where it was needed but lots of definition as well. I liked the different voicings of the distortion/fuzz elements.

~Dweezil Zappa

I started touring in 2006, and there was an agreement made for merchandise between my mom and myself.

~Dweezil Zappa

Well, I haven't been doing that much work with other people per se. I started doing more of that.

~Dweezil Zappa

On the average, I don't spend more than 15 minutes in the car - to go to the golf course or the gym. And that's the only time I listen to the radio.
