I want to move to a world of no nuclear weapons but I want to do that through multilateral disarmament so that we all disarm together.

~Ed Miliband

Over the next few days we want cities, towns and villages across the UK to send a message to Scotland: stay with us.

~Ed Miliband

While there's capitalism, there'll be socialism, because there is always a response to injustice.

~Ed Miliband

We do not have to accept the world as we find it. And we have a responsibility to leave our world a better place and never walk by on the other side of injustice.

~Ed Miliband

We can only converse if we can speak the same language. So if we are going to build One Nation, we need to start with everyone in Britain knowing how to speak English.

~Ed Miliband

I've supported Jeremy Corbyn all the way along because I think that was the right thing to do. I've reluctantly reached the conclusion that his position is untenable.

~Ed Miliband

I treat opinion polls with a pinch of sugar.

~Ed Miliband

The new generation of Labour is different. Different attitudes, different ideas, different ways of doing politics.

~Ed Miliband

The most important lesson of New Labour is this: Every time we made progress we did it by challenging the conventional wisdom.

~Ed Miliband

Freedom and opportunity are precious gifts and the purpose of our politics is to expand them, for all our people.

~Ed Miliband

Let's start to have a grown up debate in this country about who we are and where we want to go and what kind of country we want to leave for our kids.

~Ed Miliband

And think of how we challenged the idea of a male dominated Parliament with All-Women shortlists and made the cause of gender equality central to our government. We were right to do so.

~Ed Miliband

We began as restless and radical. Remember the spirit of 1997, but by the end of our time in office we had lost our way.

~Ed Miliband

Look, there is a sort of old view about class which is a very simplistic view that we have got the working class, the middle class and the upper class, I think it is more complicated than that.

~Ed Miliband

Congratulations to Barack Obama - great victory based on building fairer economy and optimism about what politics can achieve.

~Ed Miliband

A company is not accountable just to its owners, but to its workers and its customers.

~Ed Miliband

Think of how we challenged the impression that we taxed for its own sake and that we were hostile to business. We were right to change.

~Ed Miliband

We have to create security for the working families of Britain, and that's what I'll do

~Ed Miliband

Margaret Thatcher was the first political leader in any major country to warn of the dangers of climate change

~Ed Miliband

In good times, people turn to Left wing parties, in bad times, they say, well, possibly Left-wing parties can't make those tough decisions... We've got to buck that trend

~Ed Miliband

We don't compete in the world by offering tax advantages to a few that we don't give to all our citizens and businesses

~Ed Miliband

The great thing is that whether we have faith or not, we are by and large very tolerant of people, whatever their particular view.

~Ed Miliband

Well you can be the son of a Marxist and not necessarily be a Marxist in all your views.

~Ed Miliband

I suppose not everyone has a dad who wrote a book saying he didn't believe in the Parliamentary road to socialism.
