I think I was shown Pulp Fiction and Goodfellas at seven or eight. That's really bad. I think I've turned out all right; it didn't harm me too much.

~Ed Speleers

A challenge is always important; as an actor, as a human, it's good to face challenges and it's good to push your boundaries.

~Ed Speleers

I'm a big fan of British cinema; I think we make some unbelievably brilliant films, but they can quite often have a dark feel.

~Ed Speleers

I don't think I'm ugly, but I never thought I was that special.

~Ed Speleers

I want to be 82 and doing movies with Paolo Sorrentino where people are like, "This is gold."

~Ed Speleers

I like going to see live bands. Live bands can be quite heavy, but I think it's very relaxing at the same time because you feel so happy and chilled-out.

~Ed Speleers

My job isn't about pursuing fame and then becoming an actor. It's about becoming an actor and if fame follows suit, that's fine.

~Ed Speleers

I'm not good at just sitting around waiting for the phone to ring, hoping that the perfect role is going to turn up.

~Ed Speleers

When I'm putting the character together I try to find music that I think fits the character.

~Ed Speleers

People have interesting things to say and you're only going to learn from different people's experience and knowledge.

~Ed Speleers

What I like doing these days is spending more time with coaches because I think it's important to work on yourself.

~Ed Speleers

There are a lot of great young actors coming out of England who have maybe not gone to drama school, but I wish I had.

~Ed Speleers

If I look at the people that I look up to, a lot of them don't come to the forefront until their early to mid-30s. I think the most exciting roles are definitely yet to come.

~Ed Speleers

It's funny because growing up, when Ali G first burst off the screen, it was something that I was probably too young to be watching, but I absolutely loved it.

~Ed Speleers

Comedy is not something that had necessarily jumped out as something I'd immediately go for.

~Ed Speleers

I really do consider myself quite fledgling in my acting career. I've only been doing it for 10 years and that's a short amount of time, really.

~Ed Speleers

I can get quite down on myself because if people don't like what you're doing, it's hard.

~Ed Speleers

I've always loved [acting] and I've always wanted to [do it] from as far back as I can remember.

~Ed Speleers

If you can have a show that has quite strong morals and cover important themes but be able to put them out to a broad audience, that's an interesting thing.
