If you're regularly willing to give a critique, but not willing to take one, you're not a leader, you're a cynic.

~Ed Stetzer

Regrettably, we've made it acceptable to sit in church week after week & do nothing & still call yourself a 'Christian.'

~Ed Stetzer

A church without the broken is a broken church.

~Ed Stetzer

To engage people in culture we must remember that holiness is separation from sin, not separation from sinners.

~Ed Stetzer

The Christian life is not about finding safety and comfort; it's about finding yourself in a dangerous place of vulnerable compassion.

~Ed Stetzer

You cannot hate a people and reach a people at the same time.

~Ed Stetzer

Don't let your church be a cul-de-sac on the Great Commission highway.

~Ed Stetzer

Community is essential when it comes to successfully living out the Christian walk in a day-to-day context. So the math is simple: More community = More disciples.

~Ed Stetzer

If we demand things in worship that can't be in every culture, then we're demanding cultural preferences, not biblical.

~Ed Stetzer

Put your 'yes' on the table and let God put it on the map.

~Ed Stetzer

We have to assess: Are we making disciples along the way as we draw people to our churches?

~Ed Stetzer

Teaching people to become like Jesus, outside of the power of Jesus, dishonors Jesus.

~Ed Stetzer

If your church loves the way you do church more than your children, it loves the wrong thing.

~Ed Stetzer

I don't think you can love Jesus without loving His wife.

~Ed Stetzer

Your denomination is not defined by a style. So don't let style become a point of contention.
