Keep your standards high, and any guy who is worth it will rise to meet them.

~Ed Westwick

I'm all for being in love and whenever I like someone, I end up pretty much completely smitten.

~Ed Westwick

Be a good-looking corpse. Leave a good-looking tattoo.

~Ed Westwick

I've got a clear line between work and real life.

~Ed Westwick

You have to do things that excite you; you have to have a passion for your work. Otherwise you're just a face on the screen.

~Ed Westwick

I can pretty much live without fast food. I haven't eaten McDonald's in so long, but it's okay.

~Ed Westwick

This is my trademark: I rip my T-shirt. I'm into the whole showing-a-bit-of-chest-hair thing.

~Ed Westwick

I can't stand watching myself on TV.

~Ed Westwick

I've always connected with music. Life's not always what you see; it's what going on in your head. Music is what comes out of your subconscious.

~Ed Westwick

Live fast, die young.

~Ed Westwick

'Villain' is such a harsh word.

~Ed Westwick

I don't come from a famous family and don't have this detachment from everyday people and everyday life. I'm just doing my job and the attention that comes with it is part of the territory.

~Ed Westwick

I don't want to do something where I play a kid in a school. And I don't understand these spoof movies.

~Ed Westwick

I grew up in a middle class English family just outside London. I wasn't surrounded by that speedy city lifestyle, it was a little mellower.

~Ed Westwick

I don't think musicals are my thing. I'm not a big fan. Definitely have to get on the stage and do something like a straight play.

~Ed Westwick

When I need to think of, like, a peaceful scene or something, I think of my back garden in summertime. And whenever I hear the lawnmower next door, I always think it's really peaceful.

~Ed Westwick

I'm a rock 'n' roll guy, really. I'm a big fan of Elvis. I got "Heartbreak Hotel" tattooed on my chest.

~Ed Westwick

I bite my nails. I've been chewing on them for years. As long as you don't chew through flesh it's all right.

~Ed Westwick

I like the glamorous indie rock look, like The Libertines. But you know, without the heroin needle sticking out of my arm.

~Ed Westwick

Music gets inside you, music captures you. Music becomes your heartbeat. It's a drug and makes you feel whatever the song's about.

~Ed Westwick

I feel like you just need to keep writing until the writing itself just begins to take shape.

~Ed Westwick

To be respected as an actor it doesn't help to be seen out in the clubs.

~Ed Westwick

I think gardens are fantastic, and I'd love to draw and design and stuff like that. I love just planting flowers during the summer. There's something very humble about it, and natural and beautiful.
