The health effects of air pollution imperil human lives. This fact is well-documented.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

All issues are women's issues - and there are several that are just women's business.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

As lawmakers, we must assure the people of America that our nation will not experience the nightmare of the 2000 presidential election.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

I came up in a family oriented towards the sick, so I always felt an obligation for doing something.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

Our second phase was to develop a school curriculum that teaches tolerance, respect for differences, conflict resolution, anger management, and other attributes of peace.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

I try hard to convince them it's important - but there's a history of discomfort with minorities voting in some parts of this country, so most especially the older people have to get accustomed to it.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

I'm not the only one who feels the sting of continually losing.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

I said we needed to organize women around the world to push peace.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

Generally speaking, historically in this country, the care of a child has been thought of as female business.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

It takes ground activity to stimulate that Black vote.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

We're going to have to look very seriously at what we're doing right or wrong because we just keep losing.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

Right after 9/11 there was a magazine with a cover of kids, mostly 12-14 year-olds, who were being trained for military combat. I thought that this had just gone too far.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

There is not an issue that a woman cannot bring a perspective to.

~Eddie Bernice Johnson

Well, I happen to believe all business is female business.
