We started out when I was 6 years old. We played ukuleles and sang Everly Brothers songs.

~Edgar Winter

I can't imagine anything more worthwhile than doing what I most love. And they pay me for it.

~Edgar Winter

Music is very spiritual, it has the power to bring people together.

~Edgar Winter

As far as I'm concerned, blues and jazz are the great American contributions to music.

~Edgar Winter

I used to go to these old tent revivals and listen to the gospel singers. If you think rock and roll is energetic, it pales in comparison to a Pentecostal tent revival.

~Edgar Winter

I started out playing ukulele when I was 5 or 6 years old.

~Edgar Winter

So yeah, I am definitely a blues man at heart.

~Edgar Winter

I liked the more sophisticated urban style of blues like Ray Charles and B. B. King, Bobby Blue Bland, Lou Rawls; people like that with more of a tendency toward jazz.

~Edgar Winter

I love music more just in and of itself. I love harmony and rhythm.

~Edgar Winter

I've always had a great love of music since childhood. It changes every day.. every time you write, it's a new experience. It's a self expression.

~Edgar Winter

The most profound, tangible influence in my life has been my wife, Monique. I don't know that I would even be alive were it not for her, and I certainly would not be the person that I am today.

~Edgar Winter

There's a bootleg album that was recorded when I was 14 or 15, a compilation of things live at different clubs. Songs like Girl from Ipanema and Cry Me A River. I don't know what the title of it is.
