I hope I'm better today than I was yesterday. I don't believe in glory days or anything like that, so I think the best is tomorrow or later this afternoon!

~Edie Brickell

Choke me in the shallow water before I get too deep.

~Edie Brickell

Becoming a mom made me more contentious about expressing my true taste.

~Edie Brickell

I'm not aware of too many things, I know what I know, if you know what I mean.

~Edie Brickell

You feel like a prisoner if you don't create. You're jailed up inside of yourself.

~Edie Brickell

Religion is a smile on a dog.

~Edie Brickell

But who cares? I can honestly look back and realize that everything happened for a reason. Everything that fell apart has fallen back into place beautifully and magically.

~Edie Brickell

There's nothing I hate more than nothing.

~Edie Brickell

When I look at my kids, and the ease with which they pick up music, I wish I had that.

~Edie Brickell

It's hard to believe that you're really here, so I just pretend that you're not here.

~Edie Brickell

She smiles at her reflection in a spoon.

~Edie Brickell

But I really love music, and having a creative outlet is really the best thing you can do for yourself.

~Edie Brickell

And being alone is the best way to be When I'm by myself it's the best way to be When I'm all alone it's the best way to be When I'm by myself nobody else can say goodbye

~Edie Brickell

Philosophy is talk on a cereal box.

~Edie Brickell

I like Rufus Wainwright a whole lot. He makes me wanna be even more musical.

~Edie Brickell

We were too young to know better, and none of us were very aggressive people. It would have helped a lot if just one of us had been aggressive enough to say no.

~Edie Brickell

I can make dressing - or stuffing. Y'all call it stuffing up here, we call it dressing down there. It's really good dressing. That family recipe was passed on, and I love to make that.

~Edie Brickell

I think the New Bohemians' inability to say no was a big part of our problem.

~Edie Brickell

I'm filling in all the negative spaces with positively everything.

~Edie Brickell

I was seeing people that were older who didn't create any kind of foundation in their lives, and it scared me to death.

~Edie Brickell

I'll protect myself by making up all this crazy stuff. It'll be like a little shell. Like an Easter egg shell that's all decorated.

~Edie Brickell

My son writes songs and plays. He sings like an angel.

~Edie Brickell

He made me mess the song up when I looked at him... We can show the kids the tape and say, "Look, that's when we first laid eyes on each other."

~Edie Brickell

There's nothing I hate more than nothing. Nothing keeps me up at night. I toss and turn over nothing. Nothing could cause a great big fight.

~Edie Brickell

Religion is a light in the fog.

~Edie Brickell

I need to go outside. I wouldn't say I'm an outdoors person, but I like to go outside.

~Edie Brickell

When I'm all alone, nobody else can say goodbye.

~Edie Brickell

You're just playing, playing, playing, and then an image or something will come into your mind, and basically you're just narrating it with music, letting it move along.

~Edie Brickell

You can look back at anything and wish you'd done something differently.

~Edie Brickell

What I am is what I am. Are you what you are - or what?
