We foolish mortals sometimes live through years not realizing how short life is, and that TODAY is your life.

~Edith Schaeffer

People throw away what they could have by insisting on perfection, which they cannot have, and looking for it where they will never find it

~Edith Schaeffer

Encouraged, we recognise the importance of living artistically, aesthetically and creatively as creative creatures of the creator.

~Edith Schaeffer

The most precious thing a human being has to give is time. There is so very little of it, after all, in a life.

~Edith Schaeffer

The thing about real life is that important events don't announce themselves... Usually something that is going to change your whole life is a memory before you can stop and be impressed about it.

~Edith Schaeffer

It makes sense that there is no sense without God.

~Edith Schaeffer

In a fallen world, if you demand perfection or nothing, you will always get nothing.

~Edith Schaeffer

If children haven't been read to, they don't love books. They need to love books, for books are the basis of literature, composition, history, world events, vocabulary, and everything else.

~Edith Schaeffer

It is not a waste to write beautiful prose or poetry for one person's eyes alone!

~Edith Schaeffer

When people insist on perfection or nothing, they get nothing.
