The making of friends, who are real friends, is the best token we have of a man's success in life.

~Edward Everett Hale

If you have accomplished all that you have planned for yourself, you have not planned enough.

~Edward Everett Hale

I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. And I will not let what I cannot do interfere with what I can do. And by the grace of God, I will.

~Edward Everett Hale

I know I am only one, but I am one, and just because I'm one should not stop me from

~Edward Everett Hale

In the name of Hypocrites, doctors have invented the most exquisite form of torture ever known to man: survival.

~Edward Everett Hale

Friendship is one of the greatest luxuries of life.

~Edward Everett Hale

To look forward and not back, To look out and not in, and To lend a hand.

~Edward Everett Hale

'Do you pray for the senators, Dr. Hale?' No, I look at the senators and I pray for the country.

~Edward Everett Hale

I can't do everything, but that won't stop me from doing the little I can do.

~Edward Everett Hale

Make it your habit not to be critical about small things.

~Edward Everett Hale

You and I must not complain if our plans break down if we have done our part. That probably means that the plans of One who knows more than we do have succeeded.

~Edward Everett Hale

Never bear more than one trouble at a time. Some people bear three kinds - all they have had, all they have now, and all they expect to have.

~Edward Everett Hale

I will not refuse to do the something I can do.

~Edward Everett Hale

Wise anger is like fire from a flint: there is great ado to get it out; and when it does come, it is out again immediately.

~Edward Everett Hale

War - hard apprenticeship of freedom.

~Edward Everett Hale

Take time enough for your meals, and eat them in company whenever you can. There is no need for hurry in lifeâ€”least of all when we are eating.

~Edward Everett Hale

For all mankind that unstained scroll unfurled, Where God might write anew the story of the World.

~Edward Everett Hale

An intelligent class can scarce ever be, as a class, vicious, and never, as a class, indolent. The excited mental activity operates as a counterpoise to the stimulus of sense and appetite.

~Edward Everett Hale

He loved his country as no other man has loved her, but no man deserved less at her hands.

~Edward Everett Hale
