The best indicator of quality day care is the kid wants to go there, and doesn't want to go home.

~Edward Zigler

It's also the environment that determines a considerable part of the growth and development of children.

~Edward Zigler

We have to stop harming children in child care. I'm trying to make us stop. I wouldn't know what to do otherwise.

~Edward Zigler

So there's much more to life than one's intelligence score. To be a decent human being. To have some character.

~Edward Zigler

All of us know high-I.Q. people with whom we don't want to be in the same room.

~Edward Zigler

You win what you can win when you can win it, and keep pushing - all the time. And that's how this game is played. And I'll play it till I can't play it anymore.

~Edward Zigler

I study children, and they're my subjects in my studies. They're my colleagues, really, all these little kids. And I owe them.

~Edward Zigler

The problem in child care, which really all of us are going to have to think hard on, is that there is no really great solution that we can come up with for ages zero to three.

~Edward Zigler

I don't think if you take somebody's temperature a lot that will make them well.

~Edward Zigler

Most mothers and fathers will shop more for a TV set than they will for a child care center for their child.

~Edward Zigler

A kid's emotions and personality are just as important as I.Q.

~Edward Zigler

Get kids out of poverty. Poverty is devastating.

~Edward Zigler

I teach child development and social policy as an undergraduate course, and I tell my students, "Look, on any of these issues, if you don't want to work on it for thirty years, don't start."

~Edward Zigler

I know all the problems of the schools. They're rigid, they're bureaucratic, they've got a lot of problems. But it's such an important institution, and holds such promise.

~Edward Zigler

I guess if you're doing God's work, whatever you do is in His name.

~Edward Zigler

Kids do better, frankly [when the economy is strong]. Jobs make great years for kids.
