~Edwin Arnold

Almond blossom, sent to teach us
That the spring days soon will reach us.

~Edwin Arnold

No power on earth compares to a mother's tender prayers.

~Edwin Arnold

Not a piece of architecture, as other buildings are, but the proud passions of an emperor's love wrought in living stones.

~Edwin Arnold

Pity and need Make all flesh kin. There in no caste in blood.

~Edwin Arnold

One can be a soldier without dying and a lover without sighing.

~Edwin Arnold

Within yourself deliverance must be searched for, because each man makes hiw own prison.

~Edwin Arnold

Sweetest smile is made saddest tear-drop!

~Edwin Arnold

~Edwin Arnold

Yet who shall shut out Fate?

~Edwin Arnold

Like threads of silver seen through crystal beads Let love through good deeds show.

~Edwin Arnold

We are the voices of the wandering wind, Which moan for rest and rest can never find; Lo! as the wind is so is mortal life, A moan, a sigh, a sob, a storm, a strife.

~Edwin Arnold

Shall any gazer see with mortal eyes, Or any searcher know by mortal mind; Veil upon veil will lift but there must be Veil upon veil behind.

~Edwin Arnold

What good I see humbly I seek to do, And live obedient to the law, in trust
That what will come, and must come, shall come well.

~Edwin Arnold

For death, Now I know, is that first breath Which our souls draw when we enter Life, which is of all life center.
