

Eleanor Clift Quotes

Party, President, People, Pool, Complicated, Army, Lists, Breaking Down, Tea, Country, Men, Stating The Obvious, Dirty, Fall, Enough, Untrue, Today, Doctors, Versions, May

Hospice means end-of-life care. The admission ticket is a diagnosis from a doctor that you have six months or less to live.

~Eleanor Clift

If privacy ends where hypocrisy begins, Kitty Kelley's steamy expose is a contribution to contemporary history.

~Eleanor Clift

Often, the disparities in the ways men and women are treated are subtle; there are not these clear barriers that you have to break down.

~Eleanor Clift

It's a complicated set of opinions that women bring to the voting booth.

~Eleanor Clift

If there is a ground zero in the cultural wars, it is Missouri, a state where pro-life groups are strong and well organized and their agenda dominates local politics.

~Eleanor Clift

Bush does not want to go down in history as the president who lost in Iraq. His strategy to the extent he has one is to hang tough and let whoever succeeds him take the fall.

~Eleanor Clift

The list of women to potentially be on a major party ticket, in both parties, is embarrassingly short.

~Eleanor Clift

People want change but not too much change. Finding that balance is tricky for every politician.

~Eleanor Clift

Bush is good at stating the obviously untrue.

~Eleanor Clift

Tea Party Republicans, in an effort to kill the farm bill will stereotype and make racial comments about food stamps - which is a big element to the program.

~Eleanor Clift

Today's young women don't really see inequities until they go out into the real world.

~Eleanor Clift

John Kerry, windsurfing dilettante

~Eleanor Clift

If you look at where presidents come from, they're former governors or senators.

~Eleanor Clift

You could say that Trump is the 21st century version of Pat Buchanan. Protectionist, anti-immigrant.

~Eleanor Clift

Living in the fishbowl is hard enough without worrying about a Secret Service that can't keep mum.

~Eleanor Clift

Politics is so much about serendipity that we've got to have a bigger pool of women, so that when people drop out of the process, you've got others to turn to.

~Eleanor Clift

You get elected, often, if you're a woman, on the strength of the women's vote; then you get into office, and you have to adapt to an overwhelmingly male environment.

~Eleanor Clift

Religion and politics are supposed to be separate.

~Eleanor Clift

Frankly, to be a poor child in Cuba may in many instances be better than being a poor child in Miami, and I'm not going to condemn their lifestyle so gratuitously.

~Eleanor Clift

Related Links:

- Party Quotes
- President Quotes
- People Quotes
- Pool Quotes
- Complicated Quotes
- Army Quotes
- Lists Quotes
- Breaking Down Quotes
- Tea Quotes
- Country Quotes
- Men Quotes
- Stating The Obvious Quotes
- Dirty Quotes
- Fall Quotes
- Enough Quotes
- Untrue Quotes
- Today Quotes
- Doctors Quotes
- Versions Quotes
- May Quotes