Law matters, because it keeps us safe, because it protects our most fundamental rights and freedoms, and because it is the foundation of our democracy.

~Elena Kagan

I have no regrets. I don't believe in looking back. What I am proudest of? Working really hard... and achieving as much as I could.

~Elena Kagan

There is no federal constitutional right to same-sex marriage.

~Elena Kagan

My politics would be, must be, have to be, completely separate from my judgment.

~Elena Kagan

It was a very cool thing to be a smart girl, as opposed to some other, different kind. And I think that made a great deal of difference to me growing up and in my life afterward.

~Elena Kagan

Like all Jews, I was probably at a Chinese restaurant!

~Elena Kagan

It is absolutely true that I have served in two Democratic administrations. You can tell something from me and my political views from that.

~Elena Kagan

American radicals cannot afford to become their own worst enemies. In unity lies their only hope.

~Elena Kagan

And what my constitutional values are are wholly irrelevant to the job, and so neither you nor anyone else will know what they are.

~Elena Kagan

What my political views or my constitutional views are just doesn't matter.

~Elena Kagan

I think the nine justices think the solicitor general is the 35th clerk.

~Elena Kagan

If I am confirmed, I will commit to show Heller and the principles articulated in it the full measure of respect that is due to all constitution decisions of the court.
