Romance is the glamour which turns the dust of everyday life into a golden haze.

~Elinor Glyn

All the legislation in the world will not abolish kissing.

~Elinor Glyn

No one can control his emotion of love for a woman ... the sentiment he feels, I mean, but the strong man controls the demonstration.

~Elinor Glyn

I have wondered sometimes if there are not perhaps some disadvantages in having really blue blood in one's veins, like grandmamma and me.

~Elinor Glyn

Welcome to Hollywood, a land just off the coast of planet Earth. I am never quite certain if I am visiting the zoo, or if I'm one of the animals in a cage.

~Elinor Glyn

To define a man: he must be a creature who makes me feel that I am a woman.

~Elinor Glyn

The duration of love in a being always depends upon the loved one. I create an emotion in you, as you create one in me. You do not create it in yourself.

~Elinor Glyn

A madness of tender caressing seized her. She purred as a tiger might have done, while she undulated like a snake.

~Elinor Glyn

how much better to make no vow; then at least when the cord of attraction snaps, we can go free, still defying the lightning in our untarnished pride.

~Elinor Glyn

American husbands are the best in the world; no other husbands are so generous to their wives, or can be so easily divorced.

~Elinor Glyn

Whatever will bring in the most money will happen.

~Elinor Glyn

Marriage is the aim and end of all sensible girls, because it is the meaning of life.

~Elinor Glyn

Passionate jealousy is not a good foster-parent for prudence.

~Elinor Glyn

American humor ... is not subtle. It is something that makes you laugh the moment you hear it, you have not to think a scrap.

~Elinor Glyn

Everything that I write will be signed with my name.

~Elinor Glyn

I don't know how it is the most unattractive creatures of every nation seem to be the ones who travel.

~Elinor Glyn

Prudent readers will do well to hold Three Weeks at arm's length, unless they want to be cut by flying adjectives.

~Elinor Glyn

Would you please publish the enclosed manuscript or return it without delay, as I have other irons in the fire.
