I think my guideline has been to find things that inspire me. And as long as I stick to that, I don't think I'll have any problems crossing over to becoming an adult actress.

~Elisabeth Moss

To go from Girl, Interrupted, where I had to cry every day, to a TV show like West Wing where I get to laugh and joke around every day, has been a welcome relief.

~Elisabeth Moss

There's nothing like getting yourself into character and seeing a different person. It really wears on your vanity.

~Elisabeth Moss

Art often reflects what's going on in the world, and we're seeing stories that are very diverse and that are lead and made by women because that's what's in our world.

~Elisabeth Moss

I think one of my biggest influences is Bette Davis. I've seen almost every one of her films, and she's been very inspiring to me.
