Properly practiced, knitting soothes the troubled spirit, and it doesn't hurt the untroubled spirit either.

~Elizabeth Zimmermann

For people allergic to wool, one's heart can only bleed.

~Elizabeth Zimmermann

Knit on with confidence and hope through all crises.

~Elizabeth Zimmermann

Now, let us all take a deep breath and forge on into the future; knitting at the ready.

~Elizabeth Zimmermann

Really, all you need to become a good knitter are wool, needles, hands, and slightly below-average intelligence. Of course superior intelligence, such as yours and mine, is an advantage.

~Elizabeth Zimmermann

Really, handknitting is a dreamy activity, built into many people's thumbs and fingers by genes already there, itching to display their skills and achievement possibilities.

~Elizabeth Zimmermann

One tends to give one's fingers too little credit for their own good sense.

~Elizabeth Zimmermann

One un-vents something; one unearths it; one digs it up; one runs it down in whatever recesses of the eternal consciousness it has gone to ground.

~Elizabeth Zimmermann

I can knit. I knit all year, day in, day out. It is my passion, and I rarely knit the same thing twice the same way.

~Elizabeth Zimmermann

I know that spinning sets me in a trance; it soothes me and charges my batteries at the same time. When times are tough I sit down to spin during the news-broadcasts, with therapeutic results.
